Since there were THIS MANY celebrity birthday-wishers for Mickey, I thought it'd be easier if I share this on here!

I'm surprised that LA got Texas A&M vs Arkansas (at Little Rock) rather than Iowa St @ Colorado. You'd think the West Coast would have gotten the later game.

Noticed Chewbacca and R2-D2 in the list for Mickey's birthday. Long before Disney got their mitts on Star Wars.

And Kermit the Frog too.

9:30 Hello, Larry (Series Premiere; set in Portland): "How to Not To" TRIVIA: The tenth episode crossed over with Diff'rent Strokes as Larry Alder (McLean Stevenson) and Phillip Drummond (Conrad Bain) were army buddies. Drummond's company has purchased Larry's radio station, prompting the travel from New York to Portland. Contrary to some media articles, Hello, Larry was NOT a spin-off of Diff'rent Strokes.

Not a spin-off in the literal sense of the word, but they certainly wanted to show it was part of the Diff'rent Strokes universe to try to prop the turkey up.

Remember, in 1979 NBC was being held together by Johnny Carson, Michael Landon, Gary Coleman, and scotch tape.

So if there was any way for a struggling show to tether itself to these lifelines, they were gonna find it.

Good point.

Thank you.

It really was a flat out dud, and NBC trying to link it up (however tangentially) with one of their few hits was essentially a Hello Larry Hail Mary.

Truthfully NBC was basically a zombie network from the late 70s until the early 80s.

But the foundation was slowly being fortified for a 1980s rebirth of NBC during 1979.

No reason why ABC shouldn't have eventually started a noon/11am feed for All My Children so the CT stations could air news at noon without airing it a day late. Or they could've aired it at 3pm CT so you could've at least seen it the same day. I'm not sure exactly when CBS started it for Y&R. ABC finally started it for GMA3.

CBS started the Y&R 12ET/11CT feed in June 1981 when Y&R was moved from 1PM to the 12:30 slot.

I'm not sure why ABC never did a separate feed for All My Children. I recall they did separate feeds for Ryan's Hope, Loving and Port Charles for those stations that aired the show at 11, had midday news at 11:30, and then AMC at noon.

That brief shining moment when 11 was the CBS affiliate. What a snapshot!

That is one weird newscast schedule... half-hour at 6:00am, hour-long at 11:00am, hour-long at 4:00pm, and 35 minutes at 11:00pm. That is very weird.

The same day from KIRO had 5:00-9:00am, an hour-long at 12 Noon, 90 minutes from 5:00-6:30, and 90 minutes (again) from 10:00-11:35pm.

CBS Daytime Schedule March 26 1973

In Honor Of Young and The Restless 50th Anniversary today, here's what the March 26 1973 new daytime line-up looked like on CBS. All times are Eastern

10:00 Joker's Wild

10:30 $10,000 Pyramid****Premiere, took over Price is Right's time slot; guest stars were Rob Reiner and June Lockhart

11:00 Gambit

11:30 Love of Life

11:55 CBS News

12:00 The Young and the Restless****Premiere, took over Where the Heart Is timeslot

12:30 Search For Tomorrow

1:00 Local

1:30 As The World Turns

2:00 Guiding Light

2:30 Edge of Night

3:00 The Price is Right***New Time, replaced Love is a Many Splendored Thing

3:30 Hollywood's Talking****Premiere, took over The Secret Storm's slot

4:00 The Secret Storm***New Time, replaced The Vin Scully Show

Yes. Talkabout was syndicated in the US.

I had to laugh at WAOW pre-emptying most of its daytime line-up for high school basketball...really? Was it that serious up there in the area at the time? Who was going to be watching at home lol?

Yeah, it's one thing on a Fox UHF affiliate (considering this was 1990), but it kind of jarred me to see it on a Big Three affiliate. Perhaps local teams were playing.

Retro: PBS Kids - Thursday, February 27, 2003

From a very sad day in PBS Kids history. The day we lost Fred Rogers (Mister Rogers' Neighborhood). May he rest in peace.

As with my first PBS Kids schedule post, if you have the kids programming schedule for any PBS affiliates on this day that I didn't list, please add them in a reply.

On the date of this schedule, Fox launched its initial prime time lineup, which ran exclusively on Sundays until the network's Saturday night lineup debuted on July 11. (Fox would not offer prime time programming during the work week until the network debuted its Monday lineup on September 18, 1989, though it wouldn't be until January 19, 1993, that it began offering prime time programs on all seven nights of the week.)

For the first six months of its existence, dating to its initial launch on October 9, 1986, the network only offered programming in late night Monday-Friday (The Late Show, a Tonight Show competitor originally hosted by Joan Rivers, was Fox's first regular program).

I wondered what WNYW aired the previous Sunday (March 29, 1987 WrestleMania 3)?

Here it is, minus the same listings from April 5 as indicated by the gaps.

8:00 Focus on Britain

10:00 Wonderful World of Disney: "The Living Desert" (1953)

11:00 Movie: "Captains Courageous" (1937) - Freddie Bartholomew, Spencer Tracy, Lionel Barrymore, Melvyn Douglas; Director: Victor Fleming

They actually stopped airing that after March 8, 1987. So here's how the station's schedule from 3/29/1987 actually goes...

WNYW 5 - Fox New York

6:00 am - Robert Schuller

7:00 am - Jimmy Swaggart

8:00 am - Focus on Britain

8:30 am - Sunday Mass

9:00 am - Koch on Call

We're these the same episodes that aired that day or were they a day behind since they aired in the morning. I know in the older days they aired the fox kids shows out of order because some affiliates aired other syndicated cartoons but I think around 1994 or 1995 most of the fox kids shows started airing all in the afternoon or 1 hour in the morning and 2 hours in the afternoon.

I think the Friends listing at 6:00 p.m. might be a misprint (especially since there's three episodes listed). WDAF has seemingly always run a 90-minute block of news from 5:00 to 6:30 weeknights since joining Fox in 1994, which was expanded a couple of years ago to include an additional hour at 4:00.

@tmanokc are you absolutely sure?

@cbsfan95 Yes he is. There actually was a 6pm newscast, so here's the corrected schedule.

I don't remember Queen Latifah or Entertainment Tonight ever being on WCCB. That was obviously a different incarnation of Queen Latifah.

Queen Latifah had 2 talk shows. One in 1999-2001 and the other in 2013-2015.

Retro: KPBS-TV Channel 15-San Diego, CA - (August 1977 Membership Campaign)-Complete Schedule-
Friday August 19th through Monday August 29th, 1977

SOURCE: San Diego Union and San Diego Evening Tribune from San Diego, California, Times-Advocate in Escondido, California.

Here is the complete schedule of the August 1977 Membership Campaign from PBS affiliate KPBS-TV
Channel 15 in San Diego, CA from Friday August 19th through Monday August 29th, 1977 (PBS' Third National August Membership Drive since 1975). □ □

NOTE: KPBS is conducting its usual local Membership Campaign called "KPBS Membership Days" but PBS' Third August National Annual Membership Fund-raising and public awareness campaign, and it will include Membership Pledge Breaks between regularly scheduled programs, so I don't know if KPBS had another membership pledge campaign after the February 1974 Public Television Membership Week or before the December 1974 Awareness Week or before the 1975 and 1976 membership pledge drives, and any other membership pledge drive in 1972 and 1973.

SO PRETTY PLEASE Let me know in the comments or questions or suggestions for any concern... DON'T HESITATE, COMMENT ANYTIME!!

I see no love for The $25,000 Pyramid in Memphis, after it returned following a three-month downtime. (A short-lived game, Blackout, filled the interim time.)

I notice that Memphis NBC affiliate WMC-TV preempted or didn't show most of the peacock's lineup were: Super Password, Classic Concentration, Scrabble, Santa Barbara, Sale of the Century nor Win, Lose or Draw (the daytime version) as part of their schedule except for Another World, Days and the daytime

Wheel of Fortune but delayed it to the afternoon

I must've goofed on that. I'll check on and correct that ASAP.

It turns out to be an error on the Commercial Appeal's part. I've checked another edition around that date, and it should be Santa Barbara in the 11:00 AM slot. Another error they made on the April 4 edition is Ryan's Hope instead of All My Children at 11:00 AM as well. Ryan's Hope BTW, never expanded to a full hour like most other soaps.

WMC was notorious from the late 70's to the early 90's for pre-empting almost all of NBC's game shows except for Wheel and possibly one more to fill out the hour and replaced them with syndicated talk shows, and the more viewers complained the worse they got as if the station management was trying to spite viewers. It continued like that until the station was sold to what eventually became Raycom in the early 90's.

I still believe that stations like WMC who were pre-emption crazy were the start of daytime TV turning into the sorry state it's in today.

What was the program called "Memphis" on channel 24 at 5 PM? Given the date, I assume something about the Martin Luther King, Jr. assassination. What program did it preempt?

If it's not about MLK, then it's probably a local public affairs show. I'll research on that when I get the chance.

Turns out it was Benson that was pre-empted by "Memphis", so it must've been about MLK after all.

Retro: KPBS-TV Channel 15-San Diego, CA-(A Different Picture for The Holidays Membership Campaign)-
Schedule-Sat. Nov. 26th through Tues. Dec. 6, 1977

SOURCE: San Diego Union and San Diego Evening Tribune from San Diego, California, Times-Advocate in Escondido, California.

Here is the complete schedule of the December 1977 Membership Campaign called "A Different Picture For The Holidays" from PBS affiliate KPBS-TV Channel 15 in San Diego, CA from Saturday November 26th through Tuesday December 6th 1977 (PBS' Fourth National December Membership Drive since 1974). □

NOTE: KPBS is conducting its usual local Membership Campaign called "KPBS Membership Days" but PBS' Fourth December National Annual Membership Fund-raising and public awareness campaign, and it will include Membership Pledge Breaks between regularly scheduled programs, so I don't know if KPBS had another membership pledge campaign after the February 1974 Public Television Membership Week or before the December 1974 Awareness Week or before the 1975, 1976 and the Festival '77 and August 1977 membership pledge drives, and any other membership pledge drive in 1972 and 1973.

SO PRETTY PLEASE Let me know in the comments or questions or suggestions for any concern... DON'T HESITATE, COMMENT ANYTIME!!

Tonight Show - Guest host: Jay Leno; Guest: Calvin Trillin; Performers: duet with Roy Orbison and k.d. lang.

Late Night With David Letterman - (Feb 20, 1985) George Wendt, Paul Reiser; Performers: reggae artists Robbie Shakespeare Dly Dunbar.

Late Show (Fox) - Conrad Bain, Dee Wallace Stone, Paul Mooney; Performers: Pretty Poison (Philadelphia-based band; not to be confused with heavy metal band Poison)

GAME SHOWS

$25,000 Pyramid - Ilene Graff, Soupy Sales

Super Password - Edie McClurg, Jamie Farr ($50,000 won in the bonus game!)

Win, Lose or Draw (NBC) - June Lockhart & Sheryl Lee Ralph vs. Martin Kove (Sensei Kreese from "The Karate Kid") & George Wallace (comedian)

Hollywood Squares - Joan Rivers, Jm J. Bullock, Shadove Stevens, Kristian Alfonso, Phyllis Diller, Merle Ellis, Shirley Jones & Marty Ingels (same square), Isabel Sanford, Sinbad & Dawnn Lewis (same square)

And Sheryl Lee Ralph is still front and center, now doing a great job on Abbott Elementary.

Which is set in Philadelphia!

But is filmed in Hollywood!

No surprise there.

Hardly unique that a show isn't filmed where it's set.

Though they did film scenes in Philly, so there's that. Along with a slew of solid Philadelphia references big and small, somewhat like The Goldberg has done periodically. No one cares the external shots of their Hiway theater aren't the real one. Or that the floral store scenes aren't the real store. (Though the logo is the real one.)

Slight mistake on CHRO, it was still a CBC affiliate at the time (it would go to CTV in 1991). Still a fantastic job on some unrecognized markets!

I thought the affiliation switch happened in 1989. I stand corrected.

For their part, the paper listed the network affiliation as simply "Mid-Canada."

I don't know what was wrong with my brain... those are obviously CBC programs listed for channel 5 but I forgot to go back and correct the error I made in the channel listing. Duhhh!!!

** 4 - NCAA Basketball - Pittsburgh vs. West Virginia (likely a WTAE broadcast outside of ABC) **

Correct - Pitt and UWV have a longstanding rivalry (going back pre 1900) known as the "Backyard Brawl" due to UWV being in Morgantown, which is just across the PA-WV border about 75 miles to the south of Pittsburgh.

This rivalry is especially prevalent in football (where it began way back when), and would carry over into basketball.

Was WTAE the carrier for Pitt's football and basketball games, or just when it was against West Virginia?

There was no "official station". just more a case of which station would pony up to carry whatever particular game.

It's kinda like when an NFL game is carried on cable (or nowadays streaming on Amazon), there is a rule that a local broadcast station in the participating teams' market must carry the game, and whoever puts in the best bid wins.

There is no such rule like that in college sports (even then), but it's the same idea...big game of local interest, not carried nationally, so whoever wanted to step up, lay down the cash, and televise it, they could have at it.

Thanks for that info

I don't know about Nightwire being aired WHO-TV is that a newscast done in text similar to cable tv stations airing text based newscasts or running a community bulletin board set to music?

Hopefully, there's someone from Des Moines or elsewhere in Iowa who might be able to answer that.

I don't know I was only 2 but I can ask other people if they remember it and see if they do.

It is interesting to see WHO-TV pre-empting Days of our Lives for an afternoon movie.

Yes it is and my mom said she began watching Days of our Lives since 1980 and said she remembers watching Days and Another World back to back.

She don't remember Days of our Lives being on Channel 17.

No time for 'Days,' says WHO

Unfortunately, soap viewers in Des Moines have to do without "Days" as WHO-TV doesn't carry the show. In response to a letter from a reader, I called WHO program director Bill Jackson to find out if the situation could be changed.

"We've carried the noon movie for years and years," said Jackson, "and it's always done very well for us, so we don't carry any soap at that time.

"The network won't let you run a network program late over another network program, so basically there's just no time to run 'Days of our Lives.'"

So it appears that Des Moines viewers will have to wait until one of NBC's other daytime shows goes before they'll get to see "Days."

That event may not be long in coming, however. The May sweeps ratings are out, and NBC's daytime schedule, with the exception of "Days," has scored its worst performance ever, according to Variety. This is true despite changes including the acquisition of "Search For Tomorrow" and the shift of "Texas" to morning.

Show Ratings/share of audience

General Hospital (ABC).....	9.4/39
All My Children (ABC).....	8.3/32
One Life to Live (ABC).....	7.6/32
Guiding Light (CBS).....	6.5/24
The Young and the Restless (CBS).....	6.0/27
As the World Turns (CBS).....	5.9/23
Ryan's Hope (ABC).....	5.8/26
Days of Our Lives (NBC).....	5.4/21
Capitol (CBS).....	4.5/19
Edge of Night (ABC).....	4.5/16
Another World (NBC).....	4.0/17
Search for Tomorrow (NBC).....	2.9/13
Texas (NBC).....	2.2/12
The Doctors (NBC).....	1.8/8

Aside from NBC's dismal showing, the big story is the slide (over 2 points, or 20 percent of its audience) of "General Hospital" in the past six months. In my next column, I'll be examining what's going on and what's going wrong with the show that in large part has made columns like this possible. Any comments are welcome.

— Jeffrey Müller

Searching through the Des Moines Register archives, I've found that WHO Ch. 13 started carrying "Days of Our Lives" on June 4, 1984.

Since channel 17 aired NBC soaps did they start airing a movie when WHO started airing Days of our Lives.

Yes, preceded by 20 Minute Workout.

I had thought WSOC was a 24-hour (7 days a week) station by this point. Although they were only signing off for an hour or two (maybe even 90 minutes)? Were they still doing this every weekend into 1993 and beyond, or was this just a rare technical maintenance sign-off? I know other nights WSOC ran CNN Headline News all night even before the premiere of ABC World News Now this same year.

Retro: KPBS-TV Channel 15-San Diego, CA-(Festival '78 Membership Campaign)-Complete Schedule-Saturday March 4th through Sunday March 19th, 1978

SOURCE: KPBS Guide (Before changing the name to On Air Magazine - Volume 8, Issue No.6), San Diego Union and San Diego Evening Tribune from San Diego, California, Times-Advocate in Escondido, California.

Here is the complete schedule of the Festival '78 (Join the Celebration!) Membership Campaign from PBS affiliate KPBS-TV Channel 15 in San Diego, CA from Saturday March 4th through Sunday March 19th, 1978 for 2 WEEKS as USUAL (PBS' Fourth National March Membership Drive since 1975). ☐ ☐

1681362017782.png

16 DAYS OF SPECIAL PROGRAMMING DESIGNED TO INCREASE NATIONAL VIEWER AWARENESS AND SUPPORT OF PUBLIC TELEVISION!!

16 DAYS OF SPECIAL PROGRAMMING WILL CULMINATE IN A NATIONAL 28-HOUR MARATHON OF NON-STOP ENTERTAINMENT!!

NOTE: KPBS is conducting its usual local Membership Campaign called "KPBS Membership Days" but PBS' Fourth March National Annual Membership Fund-raising and public awareness campaign, and it will include Membership Pledge Breaks between regularly scheduled programs, so I don't know if KPBS had another membership campaign during 1972 and 1973.

SO PRETTY PLEASE Let me know in the comments or questions or suggestions for any concern... DON'T HESITATE, COMMENT ANYTIME!!

11:15 PM The Strange Case of The End of Civilization (As We Know It) (Repeat)

True to this Monty Python style, John Cleese spoofs Sherlock Holmes in this zany satire. After an international incident involving an American diplomat, the great-grandson of Sherlock Holmes and his own Doctor Watson are assigned to the case. Suspecting that a relative of Holmes' archenemy Moriarity is involved, he seeks the aid of such other famous detectives as Kojak, McCloud and Sam Spade-with hilarious results.

Retro: Washington, D.C. - Monday, March 30, 1981 (what was to have aired that day, for the most part)

We all know what happened that day and how the events greatly hindered that day's TV schedules. Since the shooting occurred at 2:27 PM Eastern Time, it would be just after 2:30 when most of the schedule would be altered by news coverages.

Thanks for the rare glimpse into Armed Forces programming. Does anyone know if these shortened hours (much like British TV) were typical of AFTV stations in those days?

I assume that the 3:30 "Star Trek" is the animated series, since it is only in a half-hour time slot?

And overall, it's not really much more than a conduit for CBS network programming, plus a few hours of syndicated shows, a single half-hour newscast, and a 15-minute public affairs program.

Yes it was.

KPIX preempted TPIR

You still could see it on KXTV if you had that as well, including my household back then in Dublin, California as noted above. KPIX brought back TPIR on March 7, and dropped it again exactly eight months later. On a side note, KXTV switched TPIR and Dinah! on May 9. I remember watching TPIR twice on both CBS stations that summer at those different times.

Just confirmed from thetvdvb as some of those guests are from flashbacks. Had no way of knowing beforehand. Thanks for the clarification. Was that Monty Python's sole Midnight Special appearance?

Probably. IMDB claims they also appeared on a David Steinberg hosted all-comedy show in 1974. But since that's all the proof there was a 1974 appearance, while there is lots of evidence of the 1973 appearance, either the 1974 appearance never happened or it was just a reran clip.

Schoolhouse Rock! followed all ABC weekend children's programs except The Krofft Supershow, the ABC Short Story Special (Saturday) and The New Adventures of Gilligan (Sunday).

In the News followed all CBS Saturday morning programs.

Also, KGO's Saturday listing of Scooby-Doo/Dynomutt should be 8:00 instead of 9:00.

KCOY still is a CBS station, as it always has been.

The CBS affiliation in the Santa Barbara-Santa Maria-San Luis Obispo market has been on ABC affiliate KEYT's second subchannel (3-2) since January 1, 2021, at which time KCOY's primary channel (12-1) became a Dabl affiliate. This past February 1, KCOY assumed the Telemundo affiliation from San Luis Obispo-licensed KTAS channel 33, which is now independent.

My bad and apologies. :)

Just checked more detail in Wikipedia, and you are both right! I never knew about the Telemundo switch.

It appears from what I see on their website that 13-2 is branded as KCOY 12. In an attempt to not confuse people, they make it even more confusing.

Apparently, WFTC's short-lived news department (which, after Clear Channel sold the station to Fox, got absorbed into KMSP's news department and forced that station to dump its 10:00 news to accommodate WFTC's news into that slot for a few years) didn't produce a weekend edition of its 9:00 newscast.

Just like the other post on this market from 2001, I would've loved to see KTCA and KTCI's listings, especially KTCI's due to Radar Weather.

Here ya go @itsTheRolyPoly

Sesame Street on ABC?

@nelsonincharlotte Amarillo didn't have a PBS station at the time, so KVII aired Sesame Street for many years until KACV signed on in 1988.

I believe this was the first week for Gunsmoke in it's new Monday night slot after being on Saturday nights for it's first 12 seasons. Also, this was when all three networks still had "premiere weeks"

Looking forward to the March 29, 1978 schedule!

CORRECTIONS

"CBS: On the Air"

Ignore the 'Goth' after 'Brady Bunch' which was part of 'Gotham' for the Merv Griffin Show.

KCET's channel number is 28.

A "goth" Brady Bunch - that would be...interesting.

That 1978 Kings hockey broadcast on KHJ was on a half-hour delay, which had to be a chore. The game would have started at 5:30 PT.

One thought I've had concerning Carol Burnett's 90th birthday is why did the special end up on NBC Instead of CBS?

Your question is as good as much of the rest of ours.

It would appear that at least in 1967, the CBS affiliate was on a "Central Time" pattern during the day.

That's the way it's been for all network affiliates' schedules for Pacific Time: "Central" schedule for daytime, "Eastern" schedule for primetime.

Here's more info on that week's "CBS: On the Air - A Celebration of 50 Years"

Main hosts: Walter Cronkite and Mary Tyler Moore

Source: thetvdb.com (The TV Database)

Sunday, March 26: "The Night of 100 Stars" - Co-hosts: Telly Savalas, Jean Stapleton; Special guest stars: Alfred Hitchcock, Bob Keeshan (aka "Captain Kangaroo") Opening with between 115-125 CBS stars! Next is a look at the network's beginnings on radio in 1927, and finally a look at CBS' Sunday TV programs, including The Ed Sullivan Show, 60 Minutes, You Are There, Lassie, and The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour.

Monday, March 27: "Have a Laugh on Us" - Co-hosts: Lucille Ball, George Burns, Arthur Godfrey, Bea Arthur.

Tuesday, March 28: "Chills and Thrills with a Laugh Chaser" - Co-hosts: Alan Alda, Gary Moore and Phil Silvers; Featured: Edward R. Murrow's landmark critique of Sen. Joseph McCarthy and his "Red Scare".

Wednesday, March 29: "Dreams Come True" - Charlie Brown and the Penuts gang join host Dick Van Dyke in a song-and-dance number. Co-hosting were Buddy Ebsen, Cicely Tyon, and Danny Kaye.

Thursday, March 30: "Join the Family" - Richard Thomas and the rest of The Waltons cast host this night.

Friday, March 31: "We're Getting Personal" - Hosts: Lauren Bacall, Eve Arden, Bert Convy, Richard Crenna, Bonnie Franklin, Jim Nabors, Linda Lavin; Bacall hosts a segment on Edward R. Murrow's Person to Person interview program, featuring interviews with her and husband Humphrey Bogart, plus Marlon Brando and Senator John F. and Jackie Kennedy.

Saturday, April 1: "A Rootin', Tootin', Hootin', Hollerin' Salute to the Cowboys and Clowns" - Hosts: Carol Burnett, Carroll O'Connor, Art Carney, Isabel Sanford, Sherman Hemsley, Tony Randall. The series ends with a final song-and-dance number about CBS program spinoffs, and an address from CBS founder and chairman William S. Paley.

On this date here in Southern California: Wednesday March 29th, 1978 is only 10 days later after KCET Los Angeles, KPBS San Diego and other PBS stations across the country have wrapped up successfully Festival '78: 16 DAYS OF SPECIAL PROGRAMMING DESIGNED TO INCREASE NATIONAL VIEWER AWARENESS AND SUPPORT OF PUBLIC TELEVISION (Saturday March 4th through Sunday March 19th, 1978) with the 30-Hour Marathon of Non-Stop Entertainment Programming from Saturday March 18th and Sunday March 19th with hosts Jean Marsh, Dick Cavett, Julia Child, Hugh Downs, Rita Moreno and others from the studios of Thirteen-WNET from New York and a videotaped message of supporting public TV from First Lady Rosalynn Carter!!

"Happy Days" permanent changes -

1. A new version of the "Happy Days" theme replaces both "Rock Around the Clock" (opening) and the original "Happy Days" closing theme.
2. Switched from single-camera to multi-camera setup with a live studio audience.
3. The Cunningham living room was switched with the front door on the right side (previously on the left side).
4. The first usages of Fonzie's catchphrase "Sit on it!" and his nickname for Joanie, "Shortcake".

I don't think 10 was still Action News that year, they actually renamed their newscasts 10 Eyewitness News that debuted sometime around early of 1988, that which ran until 1994 when WTEN changed the branding to the current News 10

I just looked it up, and found January 25, 1988 to be the change date from "Action" to "Eyewitness". Thanks for that correction.

11:30 Racing From Plainfield (New Jersey)

Plainfield was a greyhound race track in the town of the same name in eastern Connecticut, not New Jersey. I'm surprised the Courant made this error, considering the paper used to run the results from there daily. Or did you just assume the track was in New Jersey because that was the only town called Plainfield you knew of?

It was the latter. My extreme bad, considering I'm from California. Thank you so much for that corrective info!

Plainfield Greyhound Track, closed in 2005, was its official name.

I take it from your username that you're from Connecticut, correct?

Yes, until last year, and I used to go to Plainfield Greyhound Park occasionally back in the '80s and '90s.

That's kind of strange, I noticed that Plattsburgh, NY/Burlington, VT's NBC affiliate didn't show or preempted the NBC soap opera Santa Barbara which usually aired in it's 3pm timeslot for 2 cartoons which were originally aired on Disney Channel: Chip 'n Dale Rescue Rangers & TaleSpin, as part of The Disney Afternoon syndicated package. I know WPTZ Ch. 5 had Jeopardy at 7pm after NBC Nightly News w/Tom Brokaw but where was Wheel of Fortune during that period in 1991?!

Also I know for a fact, WVNY ABC22 did not show GH from 1985 until 1995 in favor of cartoons. Instead viewers had to see it on CFCF-TV in Montreal, which was long been carried on Champlain Valley cable systems.

They might have had the Boston and New York network stations as well.

WMTW (Ch. 8 ABC) of Poland Spring (Portland), Maine, which is listed in the Burlington Free Press, aired "Wheel".

It should say KC Athletics sine they were still there and would move to Oakland in 1968 and soon to move to Las Vegas Interesting that WCBS-TV was still not on the air all night by 1965. Yes, it had "The Late Show" at 11:30, "The Road to Rio" with Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour from 1947. It had "The Late Late Show" at 1:40, "Jennie" from 1940. But after some news headlines and Sermonette, WCBS-TV was off the air by 3 a.m. It looks like WNEW-TV 5 and WABC-TV 7 are on the air almost until 3 a.m. also. But that's it. If you were up between 3 and 7 a.m., your TV was dark.

Eventually, WCBS-TV would stay on the air all night, until around 6 a.m. It couldn't be 24/7 in those days because TV transmitters needed some maintenance every night. So it would go off the air around 6 and go back on the air around 7 a.m. It would show its test pattern most of that hour off-the-air. New Yorkers would have TV around the clock because Channel 11 signed on around 6 a.m. by the mid 1960s.

Meanwhile in Los Angeles, KTTV 11 would also be on the air all night, starting sometime in the 1960s, just like New York. I've read that TV stations in Detroit and Pittsburgh also tried staying on the air all night for folks doing shift work in those cities. But those schedules didn't last long.

And because channel 2 was on all night, the microwave feed that carried WPIX's signal to cable systems upstate starting in the 1960s picked up WCBS once WPIX had signed off for the night. That lasted all the way until WPIX itself went 24 hours in the early 80s.

Very fascinatingly arranged schedule.

And it came in handy for ch 10/12, when they indicated the source of the program!

In Eureka, those ABC daytime delays were in B&W kinescope until 1975

Originally WMTW had its tower on the top of the tallest peak in the Northeast. The call letters stand for Mount Washington, NH. Winds are so strong on the mountain that the Channel 8 transmitter building was tied to the ground with giant chains! Thanks to that tall transmitter location, overlooking several states and provinces, WMTW could be seen for maybe 100 miles around. For a while, WMTW was the ABC affiliate for four markets:

Portland ME

Burlington VT-Plattsburgh NY

Montreal, Quebec

Sherbrooke, Quebec

And with a good antenna. it could also be picked up in the Manchester NH and Bangor ME markets.

Eventually, Burlington-Plattsburgh got a UHF ABC affiliate, sometimes called WVNY-TV and sometimes WEZF-TV, channel 22. Even though it was not a strong signal, it took over ABC affiliation for Burlington-Plattsburgh and Montreal.

Then WMTW had to come down from Mount Washington for two reasons... A digital signal from the mountaintop would be too far away from WMTW's primary market, Portland ME. So it had to relocate to the same area near Portland where the ABC and CBS stations have their towers. The second reason was the growing population in the section of Maine between Portland and Portsmouth NH. This area was also too far from Mount Washington to get a good digital signal.

For several years thereafter, the Montreal TV Guide and two French-language guides continued listing the schedule for WMTW. Maybe they didn't realize the station was off the mountain?

There sure were enough syndicated

Action and Drama shows to go around on local stations in the Indianapolis

Market, even on the traditional "Big

Three" affiliate stations!

Unusual for stations at the time, all of Indianapolis' Big Three affiliates went off-air overnight on a Saturday... even WISH, one of the leaders of the old "24-Hour News Source" format.

In most top-50 markets by 1997, it was far more common for commercial stations to have their weekly "dark" time on Sundays, while normal programming would run overnight on Saturdays; most of the stations that did their weekly overnight sign-offs at the time tended to be Fox, UPN, WB and independent stations (the opposite of the situation in Indy then), while Big Three stations were trending towards broadcasting 24/7. (Big Three stations that signed off on weekends at the time were primarily in sub-50 markets and, outside of the smallest markets, more and more of those stations were starting to go 24/7 even then.)

They showed Loving twice a day? That's interesting to see. I always liked watching the late night sitcoms on Channel 7 and was glad they delayed Nightline.

Loving twice a day??? It was hard enough to get people to watch Loving once a day lol.

Well, at 9:30am, they had a repeat of the previous episode, while at 3:00pm, they aired a new episode.

A week before the World Series earthquake.

KPIX was still preempting TPIR? ♂

By what I've looked through the newspaper archives, KTZO/KEMO carried TPIR for KPIX from 1980 to c.1986 as they aired People Are Talking along with most KPIX's corporate siblings. In 1986-87, KPIX aired TPIR at 3:00 PM.

I was thinking KPIX had begun airing it in pattern by the mid to late 80s.

Actually, KPIX would return to airing TPIR in pattern by around late 1994, after 7 years of not being aired in SF.

I didn't remember KPIX airing 'Price' in '86(other than showing the summer Thursday prime time episodes that year, which might have led the network to pressure KPIX into finally airing the daytime version).

TPIR returned to KPIX for good in 1995, due to the CBS-Westinghouse merger, which turned KPIX into a network O& O, and finally killed Westinghouse and its long, annoying, stupid tradition of not clearing 'Price'.

KPIX didn't clear TPIR but did clear Ray Combs' Family Feud!

TPIR returned to KPIX January 7, 1991, replaced by The Les Brown Show September 6, 1993, which in turn was replaced by Rolonda (Watts) January 17, 1994, and TPIR re-returned September 12, 1994.

In the meantime, KOFY had dropped TPIR around 1989(clearing NBC shows pre-empted by KRON).

@cbsfan95 and @anabate123 Do you all have Friday May 13 1983 while you're at it?

Did WOI not air "American Bandstand" at 11:30 as part of the ABC schedule at the time? Did another station air AB instead or did it not air in Des Moines at all?

Phil Donahue originated in the WLW-D studios.

That's what I meant to put down. My brain slip!

Search For Tomorrow was also a P&G soap.

It's funny a about three weeks after this both Where the Heart Is and Love is a Many Splendored Thing were canceled. Where the Heart Is was replaced by Young and the Restless of course, which just turned 50 back on March 26th.

Correction, 2:06 am is ABC World News Now

When did WLOS begin clearing The View? Judging by its absence from the schedule even two years into its run, I assume WLOS's preemption of the show was a holdover situation from when ABC struggled to establish a successful talk show (between Home, Mike & Maty and Caryl & Marilyn: Real Friends).

I didn't think World News Now ran Friday nights. Weren't they still signing off the air on Friday nights?

WNN has never aired on Friday or Saturday nights. NBC Nightside (which ended several months earlier) was the only overnight network newscast that ever ran seven nights a week.

The day of one of the greatest TV finales ever..

Also WTVT was probably the only CBS station in the county to air The Young and the Restless at 1pm at that time. However I recently discovered that WBTV continued to air it from 1-2pm a few months after CBS moved it to 12:30-1:30pm Eastern in June 1981 which also meant that As the World Turns aired on a 30 minute delay from 2-3pm because it also moved from 1:30-2:30 and Search for Tomorrow moved to 2:30 kicking and screaming. WBTV aired it at 10am on a day delay for a while. So turns out it wasn't until September 1981 when WBTV moved Y&R to 10am on a one day delay. It was just over a year later when they finally moved TPIR to 10:30, Top O'The Day to 11:30 and Y&R to 12:30.

What did Siskel and Ebert preempt at 10 PM?

I looked at other dates and Siskel and Ebert was a CBS Special Presentation that night.

Here's more info on it :

10:00 CBS Special: Siskel & Ebert Special - A retrospective on the movie industry with celebrity guests/interviewees Danny DeVito, Kathleen Turner, Clint Eastwood, David Lynch and others.

Courtesy: Rand TV from Boston May 21, 1990

10:00 am - Win, Lose or Draw

10:30 am - Wheel of Fortune

11:00 am - The Price is Right

That was the beginning of WTVT preempting one or more of the CBS morning game shows again. This time it was Family Feud. They were notorious for this, almost as bad as their I-4 neighbor WCPX. When CBS went full up on game shows again in Fall 1982, WTVT started with Child's Play but preempted $25K Pyramid for Soap World. But then later that Fall decided to drop Child's Play and swap Soap World to 10:30 to show $25K Pyramid which remained on the schedule for a while. The next year when Press Your Luck premiered, WTVT instead decided to show The Joker's Wild at 10:30. That was until Fall 1985 when they finally showed Press Your Luck. WTVT never showed the "4pm Death Slot" game shows so when PYL moved in January 1986 to make room for Card Sharks, PYL disappeared again. The morning game shows remained intact until Fall 1987 when WTVT decided to show Wil Shriner instead. That flopped and WTVT was back to game shows all morning the next Fall. The unfortunate thing is Tampa never saw both finales of $25K Pyramid in December 1987 and July 1988.

Tomorrow's listings. Nice of ABC to rerun the first two episodes of Wonder Years for this season. Can't get over how dirty ABC has treated this show. They might as well have held it for fall. They should've aired it in Home Economics' place or even shortened The Goldbergs' season and aired it in spring.

I agree it was originally suppose to return in January then ABC said screw u and put it on in the summer. I think it hurt its chances for a season 3 but if they do get renewed I'd be surprised since they were off the air for a year. It's one of the more decent shows on tv.

WLKY is the last CBS affiliate to delay Y&R to 4pm though they do air it at 12:30 when CBS airs soccer in the afternoons. WNCN moved it to 12:30pm last January. Oddly enough WLKY airs Matter of Fact With Soledad O'Brien on Mondays at 1pm and 25 Words or Less at 1pm the rest of the week.

That's where on Sunday March 7th, 1993, KPBS continues its March 1993 Membership Campaign which began Wednesday March 3rd and will continue through Monday March 22nd, 1993 and it's where the Barney & Friends Family Marathon premiered on that same day where the marathon features Barney & Friends episodes and the world television premiere of Barney in Concert!!

I even believed during the breaks, first they're going to national talent from Connecticut Public Television featuring Barney, Derek, Tina and Patrice Pasqual and then for the local pledge breaks from the KPBS studios, they have obviously offered various Barney & Friends Thank-You Gifts ranging from membership levels between $60, $120 and $240, Good thing the kids enjoyed them, but parents most embarrassed, After All We Make it Happen with OUR SUPPORT!!

@anabate123 and @cbsfan95 did Lucas Grabeel ever finally come out as gay/bisexual as rumored for eons?

@genius no i don't think so.

I imagine that KSPR would have become a Fox affiliate had they not been owned by Lorimar-Telepictures & if the owners of KMTC (Meyer Communications) hadn't been so dead set on running that TV station on a shoestring budget, or at least had more money to keep ABC happy.

On KSPR 33, isn't the 6:00 pm - Newhart actually The Bob Newhart Show? I thought Newhart didn't come into syndication until either 88 or 89.

Yes, 1988. I actually saw an ad for

Newhart beginning it's Syndie run on WOFL in Orlando, Florida in either The Lakeland Ledger or

The Ocala Star-Banner, one of the two, as archived on Google News

Archive. So, in 1984, yes it would have been The Bob Newhart Show.

Actually, it was WFTS in Tampa/St. Petersburg. Sorry for the mistake.

Note: Keep in mind that WFGX wasn't available and viewable in the Alabama side of the market especially Mobile until 10 years later when Sinclair moved it's transmitter to Baldwin County where it's sister station WEAR was located to this day.

The WB wouldn't be viewable in Mobile until WBPG (now WFNA and The CW O&O) was launched as a WB affiliate for the last 5 years.

Unless they had cable, that is @kokoroanime

It is interesting what aired during the first week of public television broadcasting. Too bad the kinescope process was not invented until 1947, as it would be interesting seeing the earliest programming. I wonder what the "Worlds Fair Demonstration" programs consisted of?

Monty Python on a commercial station, who knew? I thought they'd sworn off commercial TV after the "Dean Martin Comedy World" fiasco.

I remember Monty Python only being on public television, but in the early 80s, KUSI in San Diego had a couple of British comedies in late night as I recall. They had a show that was on public television in the Bay Area but had it with commercials in San Diego. I also remember when KQED/9 San Francisco (PBS) showed SCTV reruns every night of the week at 11 PM. There have been rare instances of programs for commercial television being shown in reruns on public television. KQED even used the break points to insert PBS show promos and KQED blurbs, usually for no more than a minute or two before they returned to the program. My guess is since they ran two 30-minute episodes back to back they needed to pad out some of the time or they would come up short before the 11:30 showing and whatever came on at Midnight.

KTTU also carried a few programs from PAX

Interesting to see that KVOA aired Another World at 11:00 AM (I'm assuming that was because of Golf??). Also WHY did KOLD 13 join CBS This Morning IN PROGRESS at 7:00 AM?? That makes no sense

During the This Morning's final couple of years CBS allowed stations to for local stations to air a mix of either local news and This Morning segments in that first hour or allowed the first hour to be preempted entirely. One example is KRQE in Albuquerque did this as well as they had historically ran This Morning from 6:00am-8:00am to begin with, but as they expanded to have a morning newscast they bumped most of the first hour of This Morning as well.

For stations doing the hybrid format in the first hour TV Guide would list it as "This Morning/News". Oddly, during this time period in 1997-early 1999 This Morning actually rose to the #2 slot as GMA suffered heavy ratings losses during the dreadful Newman/McRee era.

Once The Early Show premiered in the fall of 1999 CBS mandated the stations carried both hours of program and the hybrid format ceased. One CBS affiliate, I think it either Oklahoma City or Tulsa had such a success with doing local news in the 7-8 hour they just simply ran the Early Show from 8AM-10AM instead.

I think he might have meant why did they join it in progress at 7 rather than 8, although he did put in progress in all caps. Most stations air the network morning shows from 7-9 regardless of time zone but this allowed an extra hour of syndication in the daytime.

Some NBC stations aired some or all of the soaps in the morning, soaps or no soaps.

When KCNC 4 was an NBC O&O (And even when it was owned by General Electric before that) WAY back in the day, they ran Days Of Our Lives at 11:00 AM (This was fairly normal thing for NBC affiliates to do back then)

KCNC (Then KOA-TV) DROPPED the Doctors ALTOGETHER sometime back in the 1970s (Though I have no idea as to what year this happened as I was just a kid back then)

Meanwhile, KOAA 5 ran Texas at 9:00 AM in the 1980s (I'm assuming on a one day delay) & ran the Doctors at 10:00 AM. Both they & KCNC later added Search For Tomorrow at 10:30 AM when NBC started carrying it however KCNC later dropped it (Although I was just a Teenager in High School at the time, I even wrote to KCNC suggesting they add it in at 3:00 PM however this was to no avail as they said the research they conducted didn't support it)

I will never understand WKYT airing Y&R on a one day delay at 9am...and then not even airing a 1 hour newscast at noon.

When WITI was CBS in Milwaukee aired YR at 9am Central time...idk how CBS allowed this, but I remember seeing this for WKYT in the 90s. In WKYT case the station runs away #1.

A lot more stations used to air daytime shows out of pattern and sometimes not at all.

For example WBTV didn't used to air Y&R at all until 1980. When they did start clearing it, Search for Tomorrow was on a delay for a while. And for about a year they aired Y&R at 10am. Then they moved TPIR to 10:30 from 11 from 1982 to 1982 so they could air Top O'The Day at 11:30.

The college baseball game between Columbia and Princeton on May 17th, 1939 was the first live sports telecast on American television (although the BBC had televised some London area sports events as early as 1937).

The first professional sports event on American television was a Major League Baseball game between the Brooklyn Dodgers and Cincinnati Reds later that summer at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn which was also seen over W2XBS.

You are right. I didn't see reference to any sports telecasts during the first two weeks of television programming. Perhaps some of the films broadcasted during the first few weeks were sports related, but the titles weren't listed in the schedules. Sports telecasting by W2XBS really started picking up in the fall of 1939 as the television audience began to grow a little bit.

Bad News

Well, the posting of local schedules on this forum may be shut down soon, if DavidEduardo has anything to do with it. I have really enjoyed this forum.

I could start a new forum dedicated to local schedules.

DavidEduardo sure is acting entitled @frankberry What are your thoughts on this?

Using material from copyright or pay-walled sites is not legal. We can't allow this material to be posted as it is not permitted.

You can post national public domain broadcast and cable schedules, but not local station data that obviously comes from protected websites.

TV schedules

As a collector of New York City TV listings, I can tell you there are many free websites that have archived old newspapers where you can search to find listings. These websites include libraries and other organizations that are not behind a pay wall. I see no reason why listings from places like this should not be allowed.

A lot of listings are from papers on paywalled sites like Newspapers.com but a lot of papers are also archived on Google's Newspaper Archive for free. Why can't we keep this feature and define which ones are from Google's Newspaper Archive like the Tampa Bay Times (formerly St. Petersburg Times) or the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette to name a couple?

The problem with the listing posted up to now is that they do not include the source so that it can be verified. Further, a lot more than "Fair Usage" is contained in the extensive lists.

TV Station Schedules: Not permitted

We have become aware that almost all the TV station schedules posted here come from behind firewalls or protected sites. That is illegal and puts Radio Discussions in jeopardy.

As the data is in "public domain" we will allow national network, cable channel, and syndicated program schedules, but not local stations schedules.

And, in all areas, we do not allow the posting of data and articles beyond "fair use" limits and, then, they must be attributed via a link or the publisher's data from the frontispiece of the book or the name of the magazine or journal.

Fair Use: (in US copyright law) the doctrine that brief excerpts of copyright material may, under certain circumstances, be quoted verbatim for purposes such as criticism, news reporting, teaching, and research, without the need for permission from or payment to the copyright holder. The keyword here is "brief".

This policy is non-negotiable and this warning thread has been locked.
